

Library Our library includes computers for research and over 800 books. The computers are loaded with some of the hundreds of photos that are a part of our collection.

KIA Photo Collection These photos of servicemen killed in Vietnam have been donated by loved ones. If you have a photo you wish to donate please visit the Gift Shop for more information.

Vietnam Remembrances Each woodcut print has been carved, using traditional woodcarving chisels and printed by hand on rice paper. These works are the remembrances and symbolic representations of the actual Vietnam war experience of the artist, Don R. Schol.

Dear America: Letters Home From Vietnam This award-winning film features letters written by U. S. soldiers, archival footage and music from the Vietnam Era. The running time is 86 minutes. The film contains brief nudity and adult language.

Touchable Exhibit During the summer months the Conference Room becomes our Kid Friendly Zone. Kids and adults alike are encouraged to handle the objects.

Tours Guided tours of the grounds and museum are available on request. If you're interested in a tour or have questions please visit the State Park Office.

Hours of Operation The Visitor Center & Gift Shop are open 9-5 daily May - October. We are closed Tues & Wed November - April. The Chapel & grounds always open.

VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL STATE PARK

VISITOR CENTER

War in Time:
 During the Vietnam War the helicopter became an essential asset on the battlefield. The 60's and 70's were a time of great transition.

War in Place:
 Vietnam is a place, not just a war. See the war through a soldier's eyes.

War in Lives:
 War is never confined to the battlefield. Get a glimpse of the daily lives of our troops.

People in Healing:
 Vietnam Veterans Memorial State Park memorializes people not war. Learn about our beginnings.
